Antiques Toys, Advertising, Estate Items

Aniques, Americana, & much more

Old Town Auctions currently holds four to six sales a year. We are always seeking quality consignments for upcoming antique and specialty sales as well as Estate sales. Our specialty auctions include antique advertising, toys, coin-ops, and comic character items. We can also handle many other specialty item collections, with expert assistance available for Civil War items, cameras, dolls and many other areas of collecting. Complete estate liquidations auctions can be arranged onsite or in one of our facilities. Besides offering the most competitive consignor rates in the region, we offer the most aggressive advertising campaign available. Some of the publications we advertise with include: Antique Week, Antique and the Arts Weekly (The Bee), Antique Toy World, Antique and Auction News, Antique Trader, local and national newspapers and internationally in Carrusel Magazine, Antiques Trade Gazette and others to target specific audiences. We offer a prompt 30 day payout to consignors, in most cases it is two to three weeks. Our staff and on call experts have expertise in all areas of antiques, collecting and the auction process. With over 50 years combined in the antique business Matt and Keith can answer questions and offer appraisals on almost any item.
